

Ronald Samm

Tenor

Ronald Samm was born in Port of Spain. He studied voice and piano with Noelle Barker and Ian Kennedy at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama and won a scholarship from the Peter Moores/Lord Pitt Foundation to pursue post-graduate study with Nicholas Powell at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester. After the RNCM, Ronald worked with British Youth Opera, Travelling Opera, Broomhill Opera and Glyndebourne Festival Opera and became a trainee at the National Opera Studio sponsored by the Sybill Tutton Awards and the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden.

2017 saw Ronald assume the role of Lazarus in staged performances of John Adams's The Gospel According to the Other Mary for Theater Bonn, and take part in further performances of Gershwin's Porgy and Bess in Kazan, Russia. He also appeared at The Grange Festival during summer 2017 as Iro (Irus) in Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria. Ronald's 17/18 season opens with performances of Siegfried in Act III of Wagner's Götterdämmerung with Wuppertal Opera. He then appears with Scottish Opera as Canio for performances of Leoncavallo's I Pagliacci during August 2018.

Ronald Samm assumed the title role in Verdi's Otello in December 2010 with the Birmingham Opera Company, gaining widespread critical acclaim for his portrayal of this most demanding of roles. He reprised this role for Nordlands Opera in Umea at the beginning of 2011 and for Opera North at the beginning of 2013. He has performed in Porgy and Bess with Opera de Lyon at the Edinburgh International Festival and in Kazan, Russia, and given concert performances of Porgy and Bess with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra.

His wide range of repertoire and appearances also include Tamino/Die Zauberflöte; Don Jose/Carmen for Pegasus Opera; Drum-Major/Wozzeck for Birmingham Opera Company; the title role in Britten's The Prodigal Son; Jake/Porgy and Bess in Lisbon, Florestan in the multi-award winning production of Fidelio, again for Birmingham Opera Company, directed by Graham Vick, Sigemund/Die Walküre at St John's, Smith Square in London, Orpheus/Orpheus at Everyman Theatre, Cork, and Between Worlds at the Barbican Hall in London for English National Opera. In September 2015 he returned to Berwick Festival Opera to sing Sigmund in Jonathan Dove's reduced version of Die Walküre, and in 2016 performed in a concert at the Royal Festival Hall with the London Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Vladimir Jurowski celebrating the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death.

Ronald Samm's oratorio repertoire includes Handel's Messiah; Bach's Magnificat and St. John Passion; Mendelssohn's Elijah; Beethoven's Mass in C; Mozart Requiem; Verdi Requiem, and Stainer's Crucifixion. He appeared as The Preacher in Bernstein's Mass at the 2012 BBC Proms with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, a role he reprised in Montpellier in 2013. During the summer of 2013 Ronald performed at Buckingham Palace, in the presence of HRH Prince Charles, in an evening of music called 'The Golden Story' with Thomas Hampson, Bryn Terfel and Rebecca Evans, conducted by Sir Antonio Pappano.
