Violin

'Hanslip seduces the senses with a compelling suppleness of dynamic, phrasing and senza-vibrato purity'

The Strad

Chloë Hanslip established herself as an artist of distinction on the international stage as a teenager, making her BBC Proms debut at fourteen and her US concerto debut at fifteen. She has gone on to perform at major venues in the UK (Royal Festival Hall, Wigmore Hall) and Europe (Vienna Musikverein, Hamburg Laeiszhalle, Paris Louvre and Salle Gaveau, St Petersburg Hermitage), as well as Carnegie Hall, Metropolitan Arts Space in Tokyo and Seoul Arts Centre.

Recent highlights include concertos with London Philharmonic, Royal Philharmonic, Singapore Symphony, Gävle Symphony and Czech National Symphony Orchestras. She also recorded lesser-known concertos by Robert Russell Bennett and Vernon Duke for Chandos Records, with Singapore Symphony and conductor Andrew Litton, and will soon tour the UK with Czech National Symphony.

Hanslip's musical curiosity covers the entire concerto repertoire from Britten and Delius to Barber and Bernstein. She has a particular passion for contemporary music, championing works by John Adams, Philip Glass, John Corigliano, Michael Nyman, Huw Watkins, Michael Berkeley, Peter Maxwell Davies and Brett Dean. This broad range is also represented by an extensive discography, her latest releases including the complete Beethoven Violin Sonatas on Rubicon Classics with Danny Driver.

A committed chamber musician, Hanslip is a regular participant at festivals across Europe, including Båstad, West Cork, Prussia Cove and Kutna Hora with recital partners including Angela Hewitt, Danny Driver and Charles Owen. Alongside her performing career, Chloë is a Visiting Professor at the Royal Academy of Music and an Ambassador for the charity Future Talent.

Hanslip studied with Russian pedagogue Zakhar Bron and has also worked with Christian Tetzlaff, Robert Masters, Ida Haendel, Salvatore Accardo and Gerhard Schulz. She plays a Nicolò Amati violin kindly loaned to her through the Beare's International Violin Society by a generous sponsor.
